

Court: Accepted and so marked.

Q Mary Lorraine Shuff died July 23, 1963?

A That is right.

Q To your knowledge, did she leave a will?

A Honestly don't know. There is supposed to be a will.

Q None could be found?

A That is right.

Q Is ^{that} the real estate described in the deed as just offer into evidence?

A Yes.

Q Now Leonard A. Shuff died August 1, 1963 very shortly after his wife died?

A Yes, after his wife died.

Q He left a last will and testament which we have offered in evidence here?

A Yes.

Q Bill, who was Addie C. Woerner?

A Addie C. Woerner. That was my aunt.

Q What relationship is that?

A As to me?

Q What relationship is that to Lorraine?

A Mother.

Q What is Theodore to Lorraine Shuff? Only child of Lorraine's?

A Yes.

Q No brothers or sisters?

A That is right.

Q Then Addie C. Woerner would be the only heir until she died and then?

A This daughter.

Q Lorraine Shuff. When did Addie Woerner die?

A Don't know. Honestly wouldn't know the date.

Q Approximately. How many years?

A I am afraid to say.

Q Two years, three years?

A No a lot longer than that.

Q Approximately (Strike that) Did Addie Woerner die before Lorraine?
